

Assessment Criteria	Task Number	Answer	Notes
2.1 Identify the purpose of a written text	1a	a Newspaper or web news page b Notice / warning displayed / visitor leaflet for the park c Advert / holiday brochure / travel agent's window	2 out of 3 needed for secure achievement
1.3 Use different reading strategies to find and obtain information		Assessment criteria evidenced by correct answers
2.3 Use format, structure, vocabulary and style to identify purpose	1b	E.g. a Large headline / reported by / any website features b short / language / formal / regulations in bullet points c Layout / persuasive language (breath-taking, majestic, lush, relax, etc. appealing picture
1.1 Trace and understand the main events in continuous, descriptive, explanatory and persuasive texts	2a	Fracking – what it is and pros and cons
1.3 Use different reading strategies		Assessment Criteria evidenced by correct answer
3.3 Compare information, ideas and opinions from different sources	2b	Text B	Answer shows understanding of differing aims of pieces

1.2 Identify the main points and specific detail	2c	1 fact in both, e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Flaring is a by-product of fracking ▪ There are protests in Blackpool 1 fact in Text A e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Government has removed ban ▪ Fracking banned in France ▪ Blackpool has suffered from drought ▪ Jamie Gregory is a member of RAF ▪ Any other valid fact. 1 fact in Text B e.g. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Brent Sanford is mayor of Wigford ▪ Wigford has new grocery store, golf course, bank etc. ▪ 8000 wells, 820,000 barrels per day ▪ Any other valid fact. 	2 out of 3 needed for secure achievement
3.1 Summarise key information from text	2d	That they are fanatics, that they ignore the economic benefits.	Answer traces references to UK anti-frackers through the report and summarises the reporter's view of them
3.2 Identify different points of view in an argument	2e	Reporter A – job benefits are overstated, areas such as tourism and agriculture have suffered, house prices could fall Reporter B – economic boom. New developments/facilities for local community. Flourishing local businesses. Unemployment less than 1%, well-paid jobs	Answer reflects differing viewpoints.
2.2 Infer meaning which is not explicit	2f	No – although the reporter only presents one side of the argument, the tone is objective with no use of emotive language (other than the word shockwaves)	Any answer that is supported by sound evidence re tone or content of Text A
1.1 Trace and understand the main events in continuous, descriptive, explanatory and persuasive texts	3a	Plans for the building of a large town centre superstore and car park and differing views about it	Plans for the building of a large town centre superstore enough for achievement
3.1 Summarise key information from text	3b	Boost, stimulus, positive for local people and businesses	Any explanation that shows understanding of 'this will be a boon'
2.2 Infer meaning which is not explicit.	3c	That, as a business partner in Blackmore Property, he will benefit financially if the plan is approved	Shows connection between earlier reference to Blackmore Property and Tina Spence's remark

3.2 Identify different points of view in an argument	3d	Jay Philips – 200, long-term, secure Tina Spence – part-time, low-paid, short-term/insecure	Able to summarise both viewpoints re jobs
3.3 Compare information, ideas and opinions from different sources	3e	Megastore is cheap Or The town centre is run-down	One answer for achievement

Sample