Qualification Overview

The Ascentis Level 1 Award in Citizenship introduces learners to the democratic process in the UK. It considers the national decision-making processes and it shows how learners can become involved as citizens. Learners will identify how politics leads and influences parts of the economy, and the interdependencies of taxation and state-provided services. The final part of the unit covers legal responsibilities, including the safeguarding of human rights, law administration and enforcement.

There are several features of this qualification that make it very appropriate for its target learners:

- Assessment and certification can be offered throughout the year, allowing maximum flexibility for centres
- Can be delivered either as a classroom-based course or as a blended learning programme
- Assessment is by a multiple-choice test, offered on screen or on paper. This will normally be taken at the end of the course
- There are online resources that can be used alongside the teaching

Aims

The aims of the qualification are to enable learners:

- To understand the political systems in the UK
- To understand the role of the Government in public spending
- To understand the justice system

Target Group

The qualification is aimed at a range of learners, including:

- Young people wishing to pick up an award as part of another learning programme
- Young people aged 14 – 19 who are in various learning environments
