Qualification Overview

The Ascentis Level 1 Award in Understanding Employment, Business and Enterprise qualification is designed to give learners knowledge and understanding of the basic principles of employment, business and enterprise. This qualification introduces the learner to the importance of entrepreneurial skills within business and encourages them to consider their own role in employment, business and enterprise. The qualification can be used in an induction programme or integrated with a longer programme of study within a vocational area.

There are several features of this qualification that make it very appropriate for its target learners:

- Assessment and certification can be offered throughout the year, allowing maximum flexibility for centres
- Qualification offered as a single unit of 20 guided learning hours
- Can be delivered either as a classroom-based course or as a blended learning programme
- Assessment is by a multiple-choice test, offered on screen or on paper. This will normally be taken at the end of the course

Aims

The aims of the qualification are to enable learners:

- To understand basic concepts in employment, business and enterprise
- To understand entrepreneurship and recognise entrepreneurial skills
- To understand employment responsibilities and rights

Target Group

The qualification is aimed at a range of learners, including:

- Young people wishing to pick up an Award as part of another learning programme
- Young people aged 14 – 19 who are in various learning environments
