Qualification Overview

These qualifications are all at Level 3 and are appropriate for individuals who are interested in taking on the role of an assessor, as well as for staff already in this role. A learner can choose a qualification from the suite that is most appropriate to their current or intended job role. The suite includes a knowledge-based Award in Understanding the Principles and Practices of Assessment, suitable for those who may not be directly involved in assessing, for example curriculum managers or those new to assessment. The Award in Assessing Competence in the Work Environment focuses on the assessment of competence whilst the Award in Assessing Vocationally Related Achievement focuses on the assessment of vocationally related achievement. The Certificate combines both these aspects of assessment.

The qualifications will give people who carry out an assessing role the opportunity to develop and improve their practice as well as the opportunity of achieving a professional qualification. There may be a requirement for assessors of competence to hold a particular qualification, although the actual requirements will vary within a sector. Reference should be made to the particular assessment requirements from the sector in which the assessor is working. These will be detailed within the relevant qualification specifications, or through referring to the sector skill council if relevant.

Ascentis also offers the suite of qualifications for internal quality assurance staff, detailed within the qualification specification available on the Ascentis website.

Aims

The aims of the qualifications are to enable learners to:

- Develop knowledge and understanding of the principles and practice that underpin assessment
- Develop skills in assessing occupational competence in an individual's work environment
- Develop skills in assessing vocational knowledge, understanding and skills in environments other than the work environment (for example a workshop, classroom or other training environment)
- Achieve a professional qualification for the knowledge, understanding and skills developed
