English Skills and English Stepping Stones to Functional Skills. (A full list of qualifications covered by this guidance is listed in Appendix (I))

Context

After the Extraordinary Regulatory Framework (ERF) ended in summer 2020, the regulators implemented an extended version for the 2020-21 academic year. This was due to the further disruption to teaching, learning and assessment that occurred due to lockdowns and social distancing measures. This regulatory framework allowed some of the usual 'rules' to be flexed temporarily by Awarding Organisations, permitting certain adaptations. The Extended ERF (EERF) was incorporated into the VTQ Contingency Regulatory Framework (VCRF) which ran alongside the General Conditions for the whole of the 2020-21 academic year. Learners could achieve either under the General Conditions or under the VCRF.

VTQ Contingency Regulatory Framework (VCRF) (up to 31st August 2021)

Last academic year, Teacher Assessed Grades were permitted in certain circumstances. Additionally, Awarding Organisations were required by the regulators to consider what adaptations they would make available to Centres under the temporary regulatory framework, if Centres needed to be more flexible than the General Conditions allow.

2021-22

The Department for Education and Ofqual's joint consultation on the arrangements for the assessment and awarding of Vocational and Technical Qualifications and Other General Qualifications in 2021 to 2022 took place between 12 July and 26 July 2021.

The government's intention is that exams and assessments including for vocational and technical qualifications (VTQs) will go ahead in the academic year 2021 to 2022. The government recognises, however, that learners who will be taking exams and assessments may have experienced significant disruption to their education and that these students may also need continued support in the face of any further disruption.

Ofqual have consulted on the impact of changing the categorisation of qualifications in its regulatory framework, the Vocational and technical qualifications contingency regulatory framework (VCRF), and have decided that qualifications including Ascentis English qualifications will not be awarded based on teacher judgement (Teacher Assessed Grades) and will only be awarded based on evidence from exams and other assessments taken after 1 September 2021.

However, in 2021-22, Awarding Organisations are permitted to make adaptations to their qualifications and assessments, and to carry forward any adaptations from academic year 2020 to 2021 where they are still necessary and appropriate. The intention is that certain adaptations may make VTQs more resilient to any further disruption as a result of a changing public health situation, so that assessments can continue.

Ascentis English and Mathematics qualifications under the General Conditions

All Ascentis English and Mathematics qualifications at all levels use externally set assessments, with resources available on demand to Centres. Three complete sets are available at any one time to all Centres. Learners therefore have three opportunities to achieve in an academic year.

All assessments are taken in controlled conditions. Some units require face-to-face interaction between learner and tutor / assessor. Some English units require group interaction.

Ascentis English and Mathematics qualifications were developed to be flexible, with modular assessments that can be taken during usual class time, (under controlled conditions) which are available on-demand. The regulators would like us to promote this feature to Centres who may not be taking advantage of the 'modular' approach already.

Many Centres use academic year assessment approaches rather than assess a unit/component as they go. We strongly advise Centres to 'bank' assessments/units. This would mean that assessment and internal verification could still continue cumulatively and the risk that the qualification won't be completed by the end of the academic year would be reduced. If only one unit is delayed, this could be completed as soon as possible, (e.g. after any local disruption), rather than learners having to complete a full award / extended award / certificate after a hiatus in their learning.

This would also mean that learners could claim unit certification, even if they have not completed enough units to claim for the larger qualification. This would ensure fewer learners are disadvantaged by not having evidence of progression and achievement.

Ascentis permitted adaptations

Controlled assessments for two English Skills units (Receiving and Responding to Information and Speaking) and one English (Stepping Stones to Functional Skills) unit (Speaking and Listening) may be undertaken remotely online, providing that Centres and learners are able to adhere to the specific guidance and protocols outlined in this document.

These adaptations apply to all learners who are not able to complete these assessments face-to-face in Centres, from 12th March 2021, until such time as the VCRF ceases to be operational. These adaptations to assessments should only be used if:

- 1. a learner is not able to be assessed in the way outlined in the qualification specification, and
- 2. it is not possible to delay their assessment until later in the academic year.

Centres are not permitted to make any further adaptations to the delivery or content of assessments beyond those set out in this document. Unless specified otherwise in this document, all assessments must be conducted in accordance with the Qualification Specification, Assessor Guidance and Checklist for recording remote online assessments (see Appendix (III)).

Centres will be asked to provide a clear rationale for having to use these adaptations. Centres are responsible for ensuring that no learner is disadvantaged or advantaged by using these adaptations.

In 2021-22, Centres will have to apply to use the online adaptations to the English unit assessments. This is a more stringent measure than in 2020-21 as AOs are now responsible for monitoring the use of adaptations to ensure they are both 'necessary' and 'appropriate' in every case. Centres will have to provide a clear rationale for having to use these adaptations and Ascentis will determine if their use is 'necessary' and 'appropriate'. Here is a link to the application form.

Centres are responsible for ensuring that no learner is disadvantaged or advantaged by using these adaptations.

The qualification must retain its integrity and the award of the qualification must be comparable with awards in previous years and across cohorts and Centres nationally.

It is the Centre's responsibility to consider risk in this context and to identify, manage and monitor risk to ensure the security and integrity of all assessments.

General guidance for conducting controlled Receiving and Responding to Information / Speaking / Speaking and Listening assessments remotely online

- Centres must not offer online remote assessment to any learner who may in any way be disadvantaged by the controlled assessment process being completed remotely. (E.g., where learners may not have access to appropriate technology, their home conditions are not conducive to taking controlled assessments, or where the Centre considers there is a risk of malpractice). Instead, the learner's assessment must be delayed until it is possible to conduct it within the Centre.
- 2. Centres may conduct any or all the Receiving and Responding to information / Speaking / Speaking and Listening tasks remotely online using video-conferencing applications or other technology platforms that they have been using for online teaching and learning (e.g., Google Classroom, Microsoft Teams, Skype, Zoom). This is conditional on the Centre being able to ensure the security of the platform used and the confidentiality of live assessment materials. The platform used must have the facility to show all candidates on screen at all times, and to save a video recording of the assessment.
- 3. Learners must not take an assessment in the same room / house as another candidate at the same time: learners must be in controlled conditions, separate from other members of the class if remote assessment is being used.
- 4. The live assessment materials can be downloaded by the Exams Officer or Superuser from QuartzWeb and put in a folder on the Centre's secure portal (e.g. SharePoint) from where only authorised assessors can access them electronically. Centres may not otherwise copy, share, save, or email live assessment materials. Email must not be used for communicating any content related to live assessments or learner responses.
- 5. Centres must ensure learners have access to suitable equipment, which must be a PC, laptop or tablet and a satisfactory Wi-Fi / broadband connection. Mobile phones, smart watches and other electronic devices should not be accessible to learners during the assessment and learners must not access any other application or information on screen. The assessor must check and remind learners of this at the start of every assessment.
- 6. A mobile phone, connected to the Centre's application or technology platform, may only be used instead of a PC, laptop, or tablet, as a last resort and it is the Centre's responsibility to ensure that the learner is not disadvantaged or advantaged in any way during the live assessment. 'Audio only' calls / recordings using a phone will not be permitted under any circumstances.
- 7. The Centre should be confident of the learner's digital skills and familiarity with the technology to be used. This should ideally be evidenced by completion of a practice assessment using the same equipment and following the same procedures.
- Every controlled assessment carried out online remotely must be video recorded and commence with introductions (see Appendix (III) – Checklist for recording remote online assessments). Ascentis EQAs are entitled to join any online remote assessment at any time to ensure compliance and provide supportive guidance.
- 9. Centres must complete this application form to apply to complete controlled assessments remotely. Centres must briefly outline the processes and systems that will be used, and how risk will be managed. The content of the online form is available at Appendix (II). The form must be submitted no less than two weeks before you intend for the remote online assessments to take place.

- 10. A subject specialist tutor / assessor MUST facilitate every task completed remotely. Where more than one learner is being assessed, another staff member must also be online to observe the assessments as they take place, to focus on 'invigilation'. Their role will be to minimise risk and ensure that learners are observed closely throughout. This second person does not need to be a subject specialist unless their role also includes assessing learners.
- 11. Authorised assessors should access the candidate paper, assessment record and, as appropriate, mark schemes and answer books from the Centre's secure portal in order to conduct the assessments. Assessors may not copy, save, print, or email live assessment materials, but can display them on-screen and play recordings to learners during assessments.
- 12. Video recordings of assessments must be suitably named and stored in a separate folder on the secure portal by assessors, immediately the assessment is concluded. These can be accessed for marking and IQA purposes by authorised staff only.
- 13. Centres must make it clear to all learners that learners must not record any audio or video or save, copy, or share any of the live assessment materials that they are accessing during the assessment. Learners must not take screenshots or otherwise record any of the content. Live assessment materials must not be available to learners at any time, other than during the assessment when they are being controlled by the assessor and the learners are being closely observed.
- 14. During assessments, learners must observe the usual regulations for the conduct of assessments. They must not have access to notes or any papers on the desk or in front of them except a blank piece of paper to write information given to them by the assessor or take notes during presentations / discussions. Any notes made during an assessment must be shown to assessors at the end of the assessment and the assessor may request for them to be destroyed immediately.

Receiving and Responding to Information - all levels

Task A Receiving

At all levels, Receiving tasks within the controlled assessment can be carried out remotely one-to-one or with groups of up to 6 learners (maximum). The recordings can be played, and the questions displayed on the assessor's PC and "screen-shared" through the web-conferencing software the Centre is using. The assessor must be able to view all learners at all times during the assessment, so candidate questions should be displayed in a window or split screen whilst the assessor can still see the learners. The recording must capture the candidates at all times so they must not be obscured by the questions.

Learners must be instructed that they are not allowed to speak during the assessment (it may be advisable to "mute all" except the assessor) or communicate in any way with other candidates.

The questions on the candidate paper should be displayed on the assessor's screen before, during and after playing the recording and the assessor should read them out in accordance with the instructions in the assessor guidance.

Ascentis has produced blank answer books for Task A online assessments at all levels and these can be found on QuartzWeb. These should be copied to a separate folder on the Centre's secure portal where learners can access them.

The answer books should be downloaded by learners on the day of the assessment and not before. These should be completed electronically on screen during the assessment. Learners must type their responses into the answer book, whilst being observed by the invigilator on video during the assessment. Once completed, candidates should upload their answer book to another folder on the Centre's secure portal whilst still being observed. This must be done in a way that does not reveal any one learner's responses to others and does not give them an opportunity to edit their responses once submitted.

All responses must be uploaded / submitted confidentially before the online assessment ends and while the session is still being recorded. Learners must not keep a copy on their own PC. They must not have access to the secure folders after they have submitted their completed answer book.

Alternatively, Centres can convert the answer books into a secure online form within their own technology platform for learners to access and complete, provided they are submitted securely and immediately.

Once the answer books have been completed by learners, they become live assessment material and potentially evidence of achievement and as such must be kept securely and confidentially. Learners are not permitted to email completed answer books as accessing their email account during an assessment constitutes an unacceptable security risk.

Submissions that are not made immediately, whilst the learner is being observed, will not be accepted.

One-to-one

If the learner is unable to complete the answer book electronically, they can give their answers verbally to the assessor, who can type them into an answer book on their behalf. In this situation the assessment will have to be conducted individually and not in a group. The assessor will need to put the learner's name, learner ID and date of birth on the learner answer book. The assessor can record this rather than the learner.

If there is another reason for the assessment to be conducted one-to-one the learner can complete the answer book or online form in the usual way.

Small groups (maximum of 6 learners)

If a Centre wishes to deliver Task A controlled Receiving assessments with small groups, they must use a second member of staff to invigilate and observe the learners.

Centres must take steps to ensure learners do not disclose the Receiving task topics to other learners and one way of addressing this may be to rotate the assessment sets used within a group of learners.

Task B Responding

Level 1 and Level 2 Task B Small groups (3 - 4 learners)

At Levels 1 and 2, Responding tasks within the controlled assessment can be carried out remotely with small groups and Centres must use a second member of staff to invigilate and observe the learners. This second member of staff does not need to be a subject specialist unless their role also includes assessing the learners.

Assessments must be conducted in accordance with the appropriate assessor guidance. This assessment must be presented to learners' unseen, without prior knowledge of the assessment topic. The task and topic should be read out and displayed on screen by the assessor after the usual introduction has been completed on video.

Centres must take steps to ensure learners do not disclose the task topic to other learners and one way of addressing this may be to rotate the assessment sets used a group of learners.

Where learners need to write down information, they can do so on a blank piece of paper.

ASCENTIS AWARDING ORGANISATION

www.ascentis.co.uk

Level 2 Task C One-to-one

At Level 2, one-to-one tasks within the controlled assessment can be carried out online remotely on a oneto-one basis. The assessor can conduct invigilation and marking themselves or a second member of staff may conduct invigilation/marking.

Assessments must be conducted in accordance with the appropriate assessor guidance. This assessment must be presented to the learner unseen without prior knowledge of the assessment topic. The task and topic should be read out and displayed on screen by the assessor after the usual introduction has been completed, on video.

Centres must take steps to ensure learners who have completed their assessment do not disclose the task topic to other learners. One way of addressing this may be to rotate assessment sets used within a group of learners.

Where the learner needs to write down information, they can do so on a blank piece of paper.

Speaking - all levels

Task A Presentation/Short Talk

Small groups (2 - 3 or 4 learners according to level)

For Task A at all levels, the Presentation / Short Talk tasks within the controlled assessment can be carried out online remotely with small groups and Centres must use a second member of staff to invigilate and observe the learners. This second member of staff does not need to be a subject specialist unless their role also includes assessing the learners.

Assessments must be conducted in accordance with the appropriate assessor guidance. Group sizes, notification times in advance of assessments, introductions and all other instructions should all be conducted as usual, according to the Assessor Guidance. Where a task suggests different topics for a group each learner should present a different topic, to ensure that no learner is unfairly advantaged or disadvantaged.

Where a learner wishes to show a picture or artefact to the group, this must be done by showing the physical object to their camera and it may not be displayed electronically on screen. No mobile phones or electronic devices may be used for this purpose.

Level 2 Presentation Small groups (3 - 4 learners)

PowerPoint or other presentation software is allowed at Level 2. However, all learners must be visible on screen at all times and so the screen must not show presentation slides rather than the learner, and the recording must show learners at all times. Learners may share their presentation slides with their tutor in advance and present from printed handouts or notes, or the Centre may address this another way.

Please consider how your Centre will manage this well in advance, so that details can be included on your Declaration of Intent form

Notes or presentation slides prepared prior to the controlled assessment should be shared with the tutor in advance so that the tutor can check they have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the assessment.

Task B Discussion

Small groups (2 - 3 or 5 learners according to level)

For Task B at all levels, the group discussion tasks within the controlled assessment can be carried out online remotely with small groups and Centres must use a second member of staff to invigilate and observe the learners. This second member of staff does not need to be a subject specialist unless their role also includes assessing the learners.

Assessments must be conducted in accordance with the appropriate assessor guidance. Group sizes, notification times in advance of assessments, introductions and all other instructions should all be conducted as usual, according to the Assessor Guidance. Where a task suggests different topics for a group each learner should present a different topic, to ensure that no learner is unfairly advantaged or disadvantaged.

Where a learner wishes to show a picture or artefact to the group, this must be done by showing the physical object to their camera and it may not be displayed electronically on screen. No mobile phones or electronic devices may be used for this purpose.

Task C One-to-One Discussion (Level 2 only)

At Level 2, one-to-one tasks within the controlled assessment can be carried out online remotely on a oneto-one basis. The assessor can conduct invigilation and marking themselves or a second member of staff may conduct invigilation/marking.

Assessments must be conducted in accordance with the appropriate assessor guidance. This assessment must be presented to the learner at the start of Task B as the content of the two tasks overlap. The task and topic should be read out and displayed on screen by the assessor after the usual introduction has been completed, on video.

Centres must take steps to ensure learners who have completed their Task B and C assessment do not disclose the task topic to other learners. One way of addressing this may be to rotate assessment sets used within a group of learners.

Where the learner needs to write down information, they can do so on a blank piece of paper.

Stepping Stones to Functional Skills – Speaking and Listening

Tasks A and B Small groups (3 - 4 learners)

Tasks A and B within the controlled assessment can be carried out remotely with small groups and Centres must use a second member of staff to invigilate and observe the learners. This second member of staff does not need to be a subject specialist unless their role also includes assessing the learners.

Assessments must be conducted in accordance with the appropriate assessor guidance. This assessment must be presented to learners unseen, without prior knowledge of the assessment topic. The task and topic should be read out and displayed on screen by the assessor after the usual introduction has been completed on video.

Centres must take steps to ensure learners do not disclose the task topic to other learners and one way of addressing this may be to rotate the assessment sets used a group of learners.

Where learners need to write down information, they can do so on a blank piece of paper.

Task C Listening

At all levels, listening tasks within the controlled assessment can be carried out remotely one-to-one or with groups of up to 6 learners (maximum). The recordings can be played, and the questions displayed on the assessor's PC and "screen-shared" through the web-conferencing software the Centre is using. The assessor must be able to view all learners at all times during the assessment, so candidate questions should be displayed in a window or split screen whilst the assessor can still see the learners. The recording must capture the candidates at all times so they must not be obscured by the questions.

Learners must be instructed that they are not allowed to speak during the assessment (it may be advisable to "mute all" except the assessor) or communicate in any way with other candidates.

The questions on the candidate paper should be displayed on the assessor's screen before, during and after playing the recording and the assessor should read them out in accordance with the instructions in the assessor guidance.

Ascentis has produced blank answer books for Task C online assessments at all levels and these can be found on QuartzWeb. These should be copied to a separate folder on the Centre's secure portal where learners can access them.

The answer books should be downloaded by learners on the day of the assessment and not before. These should be completed electronically on screen during the assessment. Learners must type their responses into the answer book, whilst being observed by the invigilator on video during the assessment. Once completed, candidates should upload their answer book to another folder on the Centre's secure portal whilst still being observed. This must be done in a way that does not reveal any one learner's responses to others and does not give them an opportunity to edit their responses once submitted.

All responses must be uploaded / submitted confidentially before the online assessment ends and while the session is still being recorded. Learners must not keep a copy on their own PC. They must not have access to the secure folders after they have submitted their completed answer book.

Alternatively, Centres can convert the answer books into a secure online form within their own technology platform for learners to access and complete, provided they are submitted securely and immediately.

Once the answer books have been completed by learners, they become live assessment material and potentially evidence of achievement and as such must be kept securely and confidentially. Learners are not permitted to email completed answer books as accessing their email account during an assessment constitutes an unacceptable security risk.

Submissions that are not made immediately, whilst the learner is being observed, will not be accepted.

Marking & IQA

Only authorised assessors and IQAs should have access to the folder on the Centre's secure portal to view and assess /IQA Receiving and Responding and Speaking assessment recordings and completed Task answer books.

Recordings of all tasks must be properly and accurately labelled so they can be identified and accessed as required.

Printed Candidate Assessment Papers are required in order to make a claim for learner certification. These cannot be completed electronically. These can only be printed in Centre under the supervision of an Exams Officer or Superuser.

Where printed Candidate papers cannot be accessed at the time of the assessment (e.g., because the Centre is closed), assessors may record marks electronically on a tracking sheet or other device for single or multiple learners in the secure folder, and then transfer the marks to individual printed learner papers, with the assessor's signature, at a later date.

The Task answer books contain marking grids, and these can be printed in Centre and marked for each learner by the assessor, or the assessor can put the Task marks onto a learner's Candidate paper. Marks for other Tasks need to be entered on the candidate paper and signed by the assessor, and where applicable, the IQA. Assessors should note on the front of scripts that the assessment has been completed remotely.

These will need to be made available to EQAs for sampling at the time of External Quality Assurance.

Individual Tasks may be taken at different times and marked separately, but we recommend IQA is carried out after the completion of all Tasks to accurately confirm that the whole assessment has been achieved.

IQA records may be kept electronically and should be uploaded to the secure folder. In the case of electronic IQA records, these do not need to have authentic signatures, but Centres can use electronic tracking and controls instead. The exception to this is IQA1 which must have authentic staff signatures.

Record keeping

Centres will already have in place documentation used for assessment recording, tracking, IQA planning and recording, as well as systems for the collation and saving of learner assessment evidence. As part of that record keeping, Centres must keep records of the adaptations applied for every learner, for example by adding this information to existing IQA or assessment tracking records or to attendance lists.

Attendance lists

Electronic attendance lists should be produced and kept in the secure folder. Learners will not be able to sign the list so assessors should indicate attendance on the list on their behalf. Centres / assessors must ensure the authenticity / identity of every learner taking an online assessment.

Reasonable Adjustments and Special Considerations

These should be applied in line with our normal policy. Please refer to the Reasonable Adjustments and Special Considerations Policy, which is available on the login section of the Ascentis website.

Appeals and Complaints

Any appeals made in relation to these adaptations will follow the Ascentis Appeals Policy which can be found on the login section of the Ascentis website.

Any complaints regarding these adaptations should be made in line with the Ascentis Complaints Policy which can be found on the login section of the Ascentis website.

Please note that remote assessment is NOT currently permitted for any other Ascentis English or Mathematics Skills units as an adaptation.

However, Centres do have the option use blended or online course delivery models to keep face-to-face contact with learners to a minimum where necessary, and practice assessments may be taken online.
